

Opens 1 December 2021
EPICUR Language Training for
Mobility Courses
Spring 2022

EPICUR invites students to apply for the Language Training for Mobility courses in French, Polish, Modern Greek and Dutch

Starting from January 2022, dedicated language acquisition courses will be offered to promote European student mobility and multilingualism. The Language Training for Mobility courses allow you to learn a new EPICUR language or boost your language proficiency with the ultimate goal to be able to follow academic courses in one of the EPICUR languages.

So, do you want to:

- ✓ Learn a European language,
- ✓ Improve your language skills in French, Polish, Modern Greek and Dutch,
- ✓ Be able to follow academic courses in another language than English?

Apply now for the Language Training for Mobility courses!

The courses will be made available through the EPICUR Inter University Campus (EIUC), which is the newly developed virtual inter-university campus environment.

Please note that if you apply and get accepted for a course, you're expected to attend the course and actively participate. Some courses might be more intensive than others. For some courses you're expected to buy course materials. See also the Guidance Notes and the EPICUR course catalogue.

To make sure you're put in the right class, you might need to take a language proficiency test at the beginning of the semester¹².

¹ Students from French universities are not encouraged to take the French language acquisition courses unless they're non-native speakers. There will be 10 spots available for students from French universities

² Students from the Aristotle Universities of Thessaloniki cannot apply for the Modern Greek language acquisition courses or any other courses offered by the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Student Reward - Unique opportunity Dutch Language Training for Mobility courses
